

OUR TECHNICAL SAFETY POLICY

Our company, which carries out the design and manufacturing activities of helical springs and stabilizer bars for transportation sectors such as automotive and railway; works with sensitivity towards its employees, customers, suppliers and the environment, in order to ensure the sustainability of this care;

- Considering the safety and/or legislation provisions, critical/important characteristics, including the supply chain, in the products it manufactures; The company carries out design, manufacturing and after-sales activities.
- The company regularly follow-up feedbacks, like customer complaints, guarantee returns, returns, from the field; carries out the necessary corrective actions and processes the lessons learned as institutional knowledge and takes them into account in future projects.
- The company does not include prohibited and/or restricted materials in its products, and is sensitive to employees and the environment. It also requests its suppliers not to use prohibited/restricted materials.
- The company adopts the principle of confidentiality in internal and external communications; acts sensitively in sharing information on customer projects, know-how, employee information.
- PHI employees can access documents other than those with restricted access status, such as confidential R&D projects, through the company network.
- Representatives of customers, suppliers and/or legal authorities can access the relevant documents by contacting our customer representative.

PHI Metal Otomotiv Sanayi ve Ticaret A.Ş.
Executives